MARRIAGE.

HARRIS-ROCHER. At Hongkong, on the 25th June, 1913, ROWLAND HARRIS, to MARGARET ROCHER (nee Donnelly).

HONGKONG OFFICE: 10A, DES VEXES ROAD C. LONDON OFFICE: 131, FLEET STREET, E.C.

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, JUNE 26th, 1913.

It is very evident that we are on the eve of important developments in China. The recent dismissals of recalcitrant Tuhus and various military changes indicate with sufficient clearness that the President has made up his mind that more drastic measures are needed if stability is to be obtained in the government of the country. From the many runours and authentic reports emanating from Peking the deduction can safely be made that military rule is to be made more effective in the country than is at present the case. One report from Peking says that the Government intends to abolish all Tutuships and to divide China into five large military districts, the commanders of which will be under the Ministry of War. The new order, it is said, will be instituted first in the province of Kiangsi, which will be united with the provinces of Hunan, Hupeh and Anhui as one district, with Vice-President Li Yuan-hung as district commander. Some colour is given to this report by the announcement of the new arrangements which the President desires to make for the government of the province of Kwangtung. It is obvious that the military forces of the country are not employed to the best advantage. We have seen it stated that the Tuhus of Kwangtung, for instance, has had under his command something like sixty thousand troops; yet a state of terrorism seems to prevail over the greater part of the Province. Armed banditti are roaming about looting by night and by day, clan fights on a large scale are taking place, and a very large percentage of the population deems it necessary to carry arms. Peaceful traders are afraid to travel on land or on the river without an armed escort. The Provincial Assembly has shown itself to be greatly concerned by the lawlessness prevailing in the country districts and has demanded that the troops, "instead of being retained in and about Canton for show purposes, shall be sent out to do the work for which they are paid." Similar conditions seem to be prevailing in many other Provinces. How much trade and commerce are hampered and restricted in consequence cannot be measured. In all parts of China we find the business men lamenting the prevailing chaos, and however much they may be in sympathy with the principle of republican government, their faith in its suitability for China must have steadily weakened under the experience of the past two years. It does not look as if this important section of the country would feel deeply aggrieved if YUAN SHIH-KAI, with or without the consent of a Parliament which as yet has shown no capacity for undertaking its legislative duties, were to adopt some stronger measures of control, which, while they would give him more than ever the character of a Dictator, would result in a restoration of order out of the existing chaos. In this connection it is interesting to recall that YUAN SHIH-KAI has always been a great believer in his own high destiny and apparently also in the destiny of his sons. At the time of YUAN's downfall a few years ago, a brother, who was not anxious to be involved in his disgrace, was reported to have declared that YUAN had contemplated usurping the throne of China. Whatever basis of truth this statement may have had, it may be mentioned in this connection that the names given to YUAN's three sons have been interpreted to mean "To Conquer the Middle Kingdom," "To Settle the Middle Kingdom," and "To Pacify the Middle Kingdom." When one observes the turn events are taking in China it may well be wondered whether YUAN's sons are to fill their appointed destinies as Republican Presidents or Imperial Monarchs.

At the Magistracy yesterday a Chinese was charged with wantonly discharging an air gun and injuring another Chinese, employed at the Hippodrome Circus, as the result of which he had lost the sight of an eye. Mr. Grist, who appeared for the defendant, suggested that the case was one for the civil court, and that it should take the form of an action for damages. Mr. Leo d'Almada, who prosecuted, said that the case was more serious than was at first thought, as the sight of the other eye was affected. Inspector McHardy did not bear this out, and the case was adjourned.

The collapse of the Chinese tenement some days ago has naturally made the Chinese somewhat apprehensive, so that it was only natural when a tenant of a house in West Street discovered a crack in the party wall between Nos. 44 and 46 that he should report the matter to the police. They in turn communicated with the Public Works Department, who had the building shored up, after which the occupants were allowed to re-enter the place and remove their belongings.

SERIOUS AFFAIR ON THE PEAK TRAMWAY.

A serious incident, which fortunately had no untoward results, took place on the Peak Tramway on Tuesday morning. The ascending car leaving at nine o'clock, through someone having interfered with the points, took the wrong line. An accident was only averted by the promptitude of the conductor in applying the brake. Mr. C. B. Buyers, who reported the matter to the police, stated that the points were interfered with during the temporary absence of the signman. A small boy employed by a contractor working in the vicinity is suspected. The police have the matter in hand and are making investigations.

THE HIPPODROME CIRCUS.

A HOAX WHICH DECEIVED A GALLANT POLICEMAN.

The new programme at the Hippodrome Circus provides plenty of variety for the numerous patrons of the show.

One of the new features the other night was a comic interlude. An elderly-looking gentleman, wearing a battered straw hat, and accompanied by a charming damsel, rather heavily veiled, were observed occupying seats near the ring as ordinary spectators, and during the progress of a dance by two artists, the young lady jumped up from her seat and attempted to imitate the dancers. She was seemingly very roughly handled by her companion in an effort to restrain her, but she eluded him, and got into the ring and commenced to dance. The old man followed her in assumed rage and endeavoured to pull her out, without avail, and later the pair revealed themselves as Sig. Marini and Miss Alberta. This "stunt" is perhaps familiar to many, but the acting was good enough to deceive not a few in the audience.

Among such, we learn, was a European constable who happened to be present on duty. The apparent roughness of the treatment of the lady by the disreputable-looking old man, who was with her so incensed the constable that he jumped into the ring and began to deal very forcibly with him. Explanations were promptly made and the representative of the law retired from the ring as much amused at his gallant impulse as were the spectators of the unheeded addition to the evening's entertainment.

SUICIDE OF A CHINESE GENERAL.

Following a visit to the War Office in Peking, on the 19th inst., General Chiang Fung-chin, Director of the Military Training College at Paoting-fu, committed suicide, prior to which he had informed students of his intention to take his life. It appears that General Chiang was disappointed at not receiving financial support from the War Office. General Chiang, says Reuter's correspondent, was a man of splendid character and exceptional ability. He was trained in Japan and Germany. Many foreign and Chinese friends deplore his sad death.

ARREST OF ALLEGED RUSSIAN SPY.

The Russian Legation last week made representations to the Waichiao to the effect that the Chinese police at Tsitsihar last week arrested a Russian journalist whom the police, hampered and kept in custody for three days before the Russian authorities learned of his arrest. Replying to a Russian request for the man's release, the Tsitsihar Tuhus said the police had done right in effecting the arrest, as the man was a Russian spy. Russians thereupon made strong local representations and secured the journalist's release.

FRENCH PRESIDENT IN ENGLAND.

ROYAL AND POPULAR WELCOME.

LONDON, June 25th.

President Poincaré arrived at Spithead on board the Courbet, the warships firing a salute of twenty-one guns. He was met by the Prince of Wales and was most cordially greeted, after which he took train for London, salutes being again fired.

On the French President arriving at Victoria Station, London, the King stepped forward and grasped his hand, afterwards conversing for a few moments. The hand played the Marseillaise. The President and the King then proceeded to St. James' Palace through bedecked and troop-lined streets, the vast crowds en route shouting "Vive Poincaré," and the President bowing repeatedly.

M. Pichon, the French Foreign Minister, was presented to the King. Other French visitors were presented to Mr. Asquith and H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught. There was a brilliant company of members of the Royal Family, members of the Cabinet, peers, etc. The procession of six carriages was headed by the King and President Poincaré, in the second carriage being the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Connaught.

Later President Poincaré and M. Pichon, accompanied by the King's escort of Life Guards, drove to Buckingham Palace, and visited Their Majesties. The distinguished visitors were again ovated en route.

SPEECH BY THE KING.

At the banquet given in the evening at Buckingham Palace, the King in welcoming President Poincaré spoke of the advantageous intercourse of many centuries between the two countries. The result had been a steady growth of deep mutual respect and goodwill. Since the amicable agreement of 1604 the two nations had been drawn together by a growing sense of unity of interest and identity of purpose. "The constant aim of both Governments," His Majesty said, "is the cause of peace chiefly. Our common interests lie in close co-operation for that blessed purpose." Continuing, His Majesty emphasized the inestimable advantage of a spirit of mutual confidence and frankness between France and Great Britain in dealing with the grave problems of the past months, and the satisfaction of reflecting that all the great Powers concerned had consulted together and worked for peace. His Majesty paid a high compliment to the statesmanship and scientific repute of President Poincaré, and hoped most sincerely that France's glorious future and the relations of the two countries would continue in unimpaired intimacy and vitality.

THE PRESIDENT'S ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

President Poincaré, in reply, expressed his thanks for the warm welcome accorded him, and alluded to the Anglo-French friendship of to-day, as being rooted in the popular soul. He also extolled the recent work of France and Britain in maintaining peace. He added, "This hearty welcome will excite a general sentiment of joy and gratitude among my fellow-countrymen. The friendship between the two countries is deeply implanted in the minds of both peoples, and history and time will develop it. The blessings of the understanding have been appreciated by the two Governments during the grave events of the past months."

THE BALKAN SITUATION.

LONDON, June 25th.

The departure of the Tsar and family on a yachting tour in the Finnish Skerries is regarded as denoting some lightening of the Eastern situation, which, nevertheless, continues obscure. If M. Pasic be re-appointed Premier it will be interpreted as meaning that moderation has triumphed over the war party in Serbia. The attitude of Roumania, which is likely to make heavy demands upon an aggrandised Bulgaria, and is ready to mobilise at a moment's notice, will be an important factor in moderating the bellicosity of Bulgaria.

BERGRADE, June 25th.

M. Pasic will re-construct the Cabinet without the Ministers of War and Justice, and he will go to St. Petersburg shortly.

It is reported that Serbia has accepted arbitration at the instance of Great Britain, who support the Russian standpoint.

The situation is regarded with optimism in Belgrade, and it is now believed that the four Premiers will confer in St. Petersburg and arrange a peaceful settlement.

FARM LABOURERS ON STRIKE.

DISTURBANCES IN LIVERPOOL.

LONDON, June 25th.

A strike has broken out among the farm labourers in the North-West of Lancashire, and is proving disastrous to the shire, and is proving disastrous to the farmers. Produce is deteriorating, and the price of cabbages in Liverpool has advanced to six times the ordinary value. Some disturbances have arisen, strikers holding up waggon loads for Liverpool.

MINISTERS AND MARCONI SHARES.

GREAT RECESSION OF ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

LONDON, June 25th.

Sir Rufus Isaacs was given a great reception by his constituents at Reading. A resolution was adopted, with four dissentients, condemning "the vile and gross calumnies" on the Attorney-General, and assuring Sir Rufus Isaacs of the confidence of the electors.

Sir Rufus Isaacs, in acknowledgment, recapitulated his defence. There might still be noxious weeds attempting to raise their heads, he said, but he would let them remain. He was satisfied with the resolution of the House of Commons.

AN "AERIAL" HOAX.

LONDON, June 25th.

The story of the fall of Mr. Fairbairn into the Thames from a flying machine is an elaborate hoax. A circumstantial account in the morning papers was amplified in the evening papers, which gave a story to the effect that Fairbairn swam two miles ashore. It appears that there was no flight.

THE RESIGNATION OF JAPAN'S WAR MINISTER.

TOKYO, June 25th.

The resignation of Baron Kigoshi, the Minister for War, is a complete surprise. It is the result of a proposal that officers on the retired list should be eligible for the portfolios of the War and Navy Departments.

Baron Kigoshi favoured the scheme for two extra Army divisions, in Korea which has also been resurrected.

A SERIOUS CLAN FIGHT.

ABOUT TWENTY THOUSAND PEOPLE PARTICIPATING.

A Canton correspondent writes:—

A clan fight of the worst description has been going on for the last two weeks at Sunwui. It seems that a feud between the two old enemies, the Chans and Lums, has broken out afresh. The Chans have more followers, and in their bitterness it is alleged that they have outraged women and children of the opposing clans. The outraged clan Lum called other clans to their aid, and the Ips have joined in the affray. It is further stated that the aid of the neighbouring brigands has been asked for and given in all about 17,000 to 20,000 people have engaged in this terrible affray. Fights have been temporarily put up on both sides, and a large number of fighting men have lost their lives. Cartridges are largely in demand and $30 a 100 is being offered.

At first the Canton authorities did not take the matter seriously, and sent up about 200 men accompanied by eight Red Cross members. These 200 men were hopelessly outnumbered, and were asked by the combatants to clear out. This polite request was readily complied with. The service of the Red Cross men, however, were gratefully accepted by the fighting clans, but they proved unable to cope with all the casualties. A further band of Red Cross men were sent from Canton, consisting of eight doctors and three students. As they were proceeding, together with other Chinese passengers, up the river the boats as they approached Kum-chuk Pass (in Shun Tak district) were attacked from land by pirates, who peremptorily directed that the boats should be stopped. Upon the boats speeding to evade them, the pirates fired killing four passengers and wounding many others, among them being two Red Cross men. When this attack on the boats was going on the boat people appealed to the Chinese gunboat Leng Kwang to help them, but the sailors of the gunboat, instead of helping the poor boat people and their passengers, quietly looked on all the while, and never extended a hand to save the lives of the poor passengers though they had machine guns on board their gunboat.

The Chinese authorities sent a strong reinforcement to quell the disturbance, on Monday morning. No one seems to understand why the Chinese authorities have withdrawn troops from the country districts and amassed them all in Canton for the last two or three weeks. The country districts are absolutely at the mercy of the pirates and brigands.

VISIT OF A FAMOUS MAGICIAN.

A most interesting and attractive personality, in the person of Malini, the world-famous magician and conjurer, has arrived in the Colony from Manila, on a "holiday" tour round the globe.

Malini differs from other of his craft in many ways. He does not carry an ounce of apparatus and performs his remarkable tricks with articles gathered from his audience. He is a distinctly unconventional man, and has a horror we are told of performing in any big hall or theatre, and greatly favours the drawing-room audience. He had a great vogue among London Society some while ago, his wonderful wizardry, and his jovial and cheerful personality gaining for him immense popularity. He appeared before the late King Edward at a command performance, and also entertained their present Majesties the King and Queen, when Prince and Princess of Wales. Since leaving San Francisco, Malini's tour has been a great success. In Tokyo he gave a special performance for the Prince at the Peers' Club and his works created wonderment in Manila. He gave a private performance at the Hongkong Hotel last evening, and showed himself to be at the top of his profession.

SUPREME COURT.

Wednesday, June 26th.

IN CRIMINAL JURISDICTION.

BEFORE THE CHIEF JUSTICE (SIR WM. REES DAVIES, K.C.)

THE BANK-NOTE CASE.

Anton Hauler, a Hungarian subject, was indicted on charges of being in unlawful possession of certain paper and material for impressing and making imitations of bank-notes.

Prisoner pleaded not guilty.

The Attorney-General (Hon. Mr. J. A. S. Bucknill, K.C.), prosecuted, and Mr. F. C. Jenkin (instructed by Mr. R. C. Faithfull) defended. Mr. W. E. L. Shenton watched the case on behalf of the Chartered Bank.

The following were the jury:—Messrs. W. C. Worcester (foreman), H. F. Barros, T. Hill, E. W. White, A. R. Uchmanin, J. H. Underwood, and F. M. Garcia.

Carl Weigall, formerly a butcher at the Dairy Farm, continued his evidence, and detailed a conversation between the accused and the Chinese named Li. Accused asked the Chinese how many notes he would like copied, and Li said $5,000 worth. Prisoner declared that that was not enough, and said Li must bring more money. Accused wanted 30 per cent. commission, and it was arranged that witness should get 10 per cent. Hauler subsequently said he wanted a special house to carry on his operations and stipulated that it must have thick walls so that people could not hear what was going on inside. On the evening of the 22nd April witness saw accused at the Grand Hotel. Li was with witness, and expressed his willingness to participate in the business, conditionally on the accused proving to his satisfaction that he could make Hongkong Bank notes, to which accused replied that he could make any note, except the Russo-Asiatic notes. Witness again met him on the following day at his room at the Hotel, and Li was present. Accused said to witness in German, "I cannot do the work to-night, because some other men have been doing it in Macao, and they have found a man with $30,000," and also told Li in English that he could not start the work that day, explaining that he had received a telegram from Formosa, which called for his presence there. He said he would shortly return, and showed Li impressions he had made. Then Inspector Watt and three other detectives appeared, and accused tried to shut the door, but the Inspector put his foot against the door, and went inside. The officer said, "You are Varna?" Accused replied "No," and he was then arrested. Witness never saw him make a bogus note from an impression, except by the book trick. He said that it was too hard a work, and that everything must be exact.

Mr. Jenkin cross-examined the witness at great length. In reply to a question, he said he warned accused about this business. He asked Mr. Bradbury to telephone to the police because he regarded it as his duty. He did not know for certain at that time that accused made false notes, but he knew so much that he had a feeling to that effect. Witness knew Hauler slightly in Shanghai, but they had never quarrelled there. He had nothing whatever to do with him. Witness saw Inspector Watt on the 16th April and told him everything he knew. The officer told him to find out the nature of prisoner's business, and agree to anything Hauler suggested. Inspector Watt introduced him to the police clerk Li on the 16th April at the Dairy Farm. He was to pretend to be the compradore of a Bank. Witness did not tell accused that Li was a member of the police, because they would not then have found out accused's business. Had they told him he would certainly not have made these false notes. Asked to explain why prisoner should have sent him out to buy the bottle of oil of cloves, witness said accused was afraid to go outside in the streets in the day as he might meet some of his former victims in Shanghai who might be in Hongkong.

Mr. Jenkin asked witness to demonstrate again the manner in which Hauler made the impressions, and after witness had complied Counsel commented:—"You seem to be rather clever at it yourself. Have you ever seen it done before?" Witness replied in the negative, and said it could be done easily by anyone who had seen it done once. He said he had been in the Far East for 11 years. He was a German soldier in Taingtau for three years, and was employed for a few months there by Dr. Koch. He admitted that whilst there he was sentenced to a year's imprisonment for misappropriation of money entrusted to him by his employer, but he did not tell Inspector Watt that. Witness said he had read something about the Japanese bank note case, and told Hauler about it, but the latter said, "Oh! It does not matter. It is only an advertisement for myself." The chief detective of Canton stayed at the same hotel as witness whilst he was in Hongkong about the Japanese bank note case. He was not told by the detective that a police spy in that case was paid $6,000. He had noticed in the newspapers that a Chinese detective masqueraded as a Chinese who wanted to buy the notes in that case. He had never seen Hauler do anything but take a first impression. Accused never made any notes in the presence of Li, but only showed him the second impression. He introduced prisoner to Li under the name of Schwartz at Hauler's request.

Mr. Hill, one of the jurors, complained of feeling very unwell, and asked to be allowed to withdraw from the case.

His Lordship said he had power under Section 22 to go on with six jurors, and granted the juror's request.

Questioned in regard to the book trick, witness said that both Li and himself knew it was a trick, but accused was ignorant of the fact that Li knew it was a trick. Witness admitted having sold arms in Shanghai, but denied having done so in this Colony.

His Lordship—He seemed very pleased, and almost rejoiced, yesterday when he said, "I sold arms, ammunition, morphine, and cocaine."

Witness explained that he told this to Hauler in order to deceive him. He also told him that Li and himself had been in dangerous business before. They told Hauler that to lead him on.

Evidence was next given by the Chinese police clerk, Li, who corroborated the major part of the former witness' statements. He added that when he told the accused that he had secured a house as he desired, in Kennedy Road, and had paid $250 as a month's rent, accused told him not to worry over what he paid, for he would be repaid a thousand times.

Inspector Watt also gave evidence, and said that when he discovered the impressions under the prisoner's coat on the bed in his room accused fainted. When in the police cells, accused intimated that he desired to make a communication to witness. He had not then been charged and cautioned. Prisoner said, "This case is entirely in your hands. Tear up these three impressions, and I will give you $6,000."

Witness, in cross-examination by Mr. Jenkin, denied that prisoner asked for an interpreter at the Police Station; and was refused one. Prisoner could speak fluent English. Witness had served in the police force at Home.

Mr. Jenkin—Have you ever in your time induced people to commit a crime?—I have set many a trap in my time. (Laughter.)

Mr. Jenkin called the attention of the witness to Lord Brampton's (Sir Henry Hawkins) introductory passage in the Police Code Book, in the course of which the great jurist said that the duty of the police was to prevent crime as much as possible, and not by negligence tempt people to commit it.

Witness said that was all right for the ordinary policeman on his beat.

Mr. Jenkin—Do you say that in this case you prevented the commission of a crime?—I detected it.

You detected a crime which you brought about?—Yes, at the orders of my superiors.

You might have gone to this man Hauler and warned him, or else have had him banished?—I could.

Mr. Frank Browne, the Government analyst, related to the Court the contents of the various bottles found in the room of the accused at the hotel when he was arrested. He produced the impressions he had made of bank notes through following the directions of the first witness (Weigall). He certainly thought that if greater pressure and heat were applied the impression would be considerably more distinct. He had never heard of the process adopted in this case before. The hearing was adjourned.

IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

BEFORE THE PRINCE JUDGE (MR. J. H. KEMP).

A CLAIM FOR REMUNERATION OF SERVICES. R. J. Oudish sued M. S. Nazarrali for the sum of $469.80, balance alleged to be due to him for services rendered.

Mr. R. C. Faithfull was for the plaintiff, and Mr. W. B. Hind defended.

Mr. Faithfull said the plaintiff was engaged by defendant to take charge of a grocery and coffee shop at Lyemun Barracks for the month of July and August of last year at a remuneration of $80 per month. This went on for some little time, until his duties became so multifarious that he told defendant he should require $10 a month. Defendant induced him to remain in his service by telling him that he would see that he was satisfied, and that he would act fairly toward him. It seemed that defendant squeezed as much work out of this unfortunate plaintiff, who was an elderly man, as he possibly could. Part of his duties were to go to the Barracks in the morning and in the latter part of the day he attended the coffee shop. There was no sleeping accommodation there, and plaintiff had to return to his home in Hongkong every night at about 11 o'clock. The hearing was adjourned to Saturday morning.

THE SOTTO EXTRADITION CASE.

The proceedings in the matter of an application for the surrender of Vicente Sotto, the editor of the Philippine Republic, to the American Government, on a charge of abduction at Cebu, within the jurisdiction of the United States, were continued before Mr. F. A. Hazeland at the Magistracy yesterday.

Mr. P. M. Hodgson (Crown Solicitor) appeared in support of the application; Mr. Reader Harris (of Messrs. Wilkinson & Grist) represented the American Government, and Mr. G. K. Hall Brutton appeared for the defendant.

The cross-examination of Mr. T. Carey Welsh was continued by Mr. Brutton.

Can the Filipino in the Philippine Islands be naturalised as an American citizen?—No, I would like to make a further statement.

Then the naturalisation laws do not apply in the Philippines?—There is no machinery for applying the Federal naturalisation law in the Philippines.

Were you not instrumental in causing the suspension of certain Municipal Councillors in Cebu in 1908?—I was.

And in February, 1908, was F. Y. Arias, the acting president of the Municipal Council?—I can't say. I don't remember the name.

Is that the seal of the Municipal Council on Exhibit 4?—I think it is.

Exhibit 4, a copy of resolution passed by the Cebu Council expressing appreciation of what Mr. Vicente Sotto had written on behalf of the Filipinos, was mentioned.

The suspension was by the order of the Governor-General?—Yes, by his order or authority.

Was there a petition to the Governor-General for the re-instatement of the Councillors?—My recollection is not distinct. I think there was. I think they "begged off" and promised to be good, and Governor Smith reinstated them.

Does the Philippine Government subscribe for and take in the Philippine Republic?—The Philippine Government is a Government which contains five executive departments, about 23 bureaux, and a good many hundred different offices.

I am unable to say whether any of these subscribe to the paper or not.

Does the Government of the Philippines remove to Baguio each year?—The executive departments and those bureaux the nature of whose business permits remove to Baguio to such an extent as is practicable. My own bureau goes every year—practically all.

Do you know R. D. Ferguson, chief of the translation division?—I do.

Do you know his signature?—I do.

Is that his signature?—It is.

(The document referred to was a letter to the manager of the Philippine Republic requesting the paper to be forwarded to Baguio.)

You are not prepared to swear that your bureau does not take it in?—I see now that it does.

Does the Philippine Republic circulate largely in Manila and the provinces?—I have no notion as to its circulation.

Until a minute ago I did not even know that the Executive Bureau subscribed to it.

Do you know whether there was a States Attorney named Rovira of Bohol?—I do know of him.

Was he requested to send in his resignation by the Government of the Philippines?—I don't think I handled that matter myself. I have a recollection that he was.

Was his resignation asked for on account of his relations with defendant and his approval of the principles published in the Philippine Republic?—In view of the form of your question, I must answer no.

Is the paper El Tiempo published in the Philippines?—It is.

Does that paragraph (marked 24 in the copy of the paper) correctly set forth the reasons for the resignation of Rovira?—The inference to be drawn from that paragraph is absolutely and intentionally wrong.

Do you know a paper called La Vanguardia?—Yes.

There is a long statement there with regard to the resignation of Rovira?—Yes.

(Copy of paper dated May 27th, 1913, put in.)

The name printed at the end of the article is Leopoldo Rovira, formerly provincial fiscal of Bohol?—Yes.

That purports to give in that article the correct reasons for his resignation—the letter written by him to Vicente Sotto, editor of the Philippine Republic of Hongkong?—It sets out what purports to be a letter. Whether it is a real copy I can't say.

Would you know Leopoldo Rovira's signature if you saw it?—I think I would.

The letter written by Mr. Rovira to defendant expressing approbation of the latter's scheme in publishing a newspaper in English and Spanish was read.

Was it in consequence of that letter to Vicente Sotto that Rovira was asked to resign?—The article itself sets forth in its account of Governor Gilbert's interview the real reason why he was asked to resign, which was the public expression of sympathy and support with a convicted criminal and fugitive from justice. It is safe to say that no man in the Philippine Islands will be allowed to hold office who expresses sympathy and support of convicted criminals, and fugitives from justice especially.

Mr. Brutton objected to witness being allowed to state matters in his answers which did not arise from the question.

Witness craved the privilege of completing his question.

Mr. Hodgson said the answer should be completed.

Mr. Brutton's objection was noted.

Mr. Hodgson asked his Worship to make a note to the effect that witness desired to say more but was stopped.

His Worship—You can re-examine him on that point.

Mr. Hodgson asked that the point be noted.

Do you know whether defendant was editor and publisher of a newspaper called La Justicia published in the Philippine Islands?—I believe so; I don't know.

Do you know whether that paper was suppressed?—I do not.

Do you know whether he was the publisher and editor of the paper published in the Philippines called El Nacional?—I don't know. I know by hearsay that he was connected with a number of different papers at different times. The only one I remember in my time was Ang Suga, and I am not sure that I ever saw a copy of that.

Is Mr. C. M. Catterman Director of Posts in the Philippine Islands?—He is.

Do you know his signature?—I do.

Is that his signature?—It is.

(The letter refusing admission to Ang Suga to postal privileges was put in.)

Are there at present six suits for criminal prosecutions for libel against the defendant still pending in Cebu?—I am not certain, but my impression is that there are no criminal charges pending against this defendant other than the one involved in this extradition. If there are, they would be discontinued the day after Sotto got back.

Do you know that there have been 22 prosecutions against this man for libel?—All I know in regard to those matters is derived from his own statements in the Hongkong newspapers and the record of the first extradition proceedings.

Was the present Governor-General of the Philippines appointed by the late Republican Administration?—He was appointed by President Taft by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Were not all the members of the Philippine Commission appointed by the Republican Administration?—They were all appointed by a Republican Administration.

Do you know what policy the Philippine Republic has always advocated?—Only in a vague way.

Has it always advocated the independence of the Philippine Islands?—So far as I understand it, it is down with all Americans and up with Sotto.

Does it mean independence of the Philippine Islands?—The independence of the Philippines with Sotto on top.

Mr. Anderson tells us that the Philippine Government sends delegates to the House of Representatives?—Yes, the Philippine Government sends two resident Commissioners to Washington.

But they have no votes and voice?—They have a voice and the privilege of the floor, but no votes.

At the recent Democratic Convention at Baltimore were not the American delegates from the Philippine Islands excluded from voting because the Supreme Court of the United States had decided that the Philippine Islands were not a part of the United States?—I was not at the Convention. I have only heard it said. I have no knowledge of the reasons for such exclusion.

Was Colonel Cramé at the head of the Constabulary?—No.

Who is Colonel Cramé?—He is an officer of the Constabulary of the Philippine Islands, and chief of the information division. I think.

Who is Colonel Harbord?—Assistant Director of Constabulary.

Who is Major Guthrie?—An officer of the Philippine Constabulary, now stationed in Northern Luzon, I think.

The hearing was then adjourned.

JAPANESE ARMS FOR SOUTH CHINA.

Reuter's Tokyo correspondent wires:—It appears, according to authoritative information received here, that considerable quantities of arms are being shipped into Foochow and other southern Chinese ports. A portion of the arms comes from contractors in Japan who bought up weapons discarded by the War Office.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS IN CHOSSEN AND MANCHURIA.

FULL TEXT OF JAPAN'S AGREEMENT WITH CHINA.

The following agreement between Mr. Ijima, Japanese Minister to China, and Mr. Aglen, Inspector-General of the Chinese Maritime Customs, concluded on May 29th, is issued by the Tokyo Foreign Office:

Arrangement relating to the reduction of Customs duties on goods transported by the Antung Railway, to be imported to Manchuria from Chosen or via Chosen, or to be exported from Manchuria to Chosen or via Chosen.

Article 1.—An import or export duty amounting to two-thirds of the several Maritime Tariff Rates shall be levied on dutiable goods consigned to the railway from Manchuria to places farther than New Wiju, or to Manchuria from places farther than New Wiju.

Article 2.—The above reduction does not apply to goods that are exported by rail from Manchuria, to be sent by the Yalu Waterway from New Wiju elsewhere, or the goods that are imported to Manchuria by rail from New Wiju, having arrived there by the same waterway.

In consequence, the full tariff duty shall be levied on all dutiable goods exported by rail to places farther than New Wiju, except on the following goods, on which a rebate of one-third duty is allowed:—

(a).—Goods for local consumption at New Wiju.

(b).—Goods that have to be transported by rail to places farther than New Wiju, within two years after their exportation from Manchuria.

The necessary conditions for receiving the one-third tariff rebate will be, in case of goods of class (a), an import permit issued by the New Wiju Customs House, proving the payment of the import duty; and in the case of goods of class (b), a transport permit issued by the New Wiju Customs House, giving such a detailed account as to enable the Antung Customs to recognize the goods as those originally exported from Manchuria.

An import duty amounting to two-thirds of the Maritime Customs Tariff shall be levied on dutiable goods, which are not mentioned in the first paragraph of this article, and which are to be imported by rail to Manchuria from New Wiju, provided that they are accompanied by an export permit or transport permit issued by the New Wiju Customs House, showing that they have not arrived in New Wiju by vessel.

In case of any changes being made in the formalities of the Chosen Customs, it may become necessary for the Chinese Maritime Customs to remodel its formalities.

Article 3.—The Transit Tax (Tait tax) on the goods consigned to the interior of Manchuria, subject to the one-third reduction of duty, shall be one-third of the Customs duty, viz., a half of the two-thirds import duty already paid.

Article 4.—The regular Customs rules applicable to foreign imports by virtue of the treaties shall be applied to goods that have been imported to Antung subject to the one-third reduction of duty, and that are then sent by rail to the ports outside of Manchuria or to the interior of China Proper, or by vessel to Manchuria or China Proper, unless the reduced portion of the duty be paid to the Chinese Maritime Customs.

Article 5.—The applicant must send in, besides, an application in the English and Chinese languages, a duplicate of the railway freight bill stating the following particulars:—

The name of sender, and name of addressee, if possible; place of dispatch (name of railway station); name of goods, capacity, weight, packing, symbol, sign, numbering, etc., including the valuation; signature of railway official who handled the goods.

Article 6.—The Chosen Customs and the Chinese Maritime Customs recognize the principle of co-operating with each other in preventing such fraudulent acts as would damage the revenue of their respective countries.

Done in Peking, May 29th, 1913. (Signed) HIKOKICHI IJIMA, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Japan.

(Signed) F. A. AGLEN, Inspector-General of the Maritime Customs.

THE ORIENTAL BREWERY PLANT.

The Manila Callers of Saturday last contains the following:—

"After considerable discussion in the columns of Manila newspapers, the price paid for the Hongkong Brewing Company's plant, which recently was purchased by A. M. Barretto, of Manila, and his associates, the sum actually transferred as the purchase price of the plant has been established at 220,000 Mex. This information comes direct from a Manila directly interested in the transaction who has just returned from Hongkong."

"Under the direction of Engineer Whalen, of the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Company's Staff, the Hongkong plant is rapidly being dismantled for shipment to Manila, and within the course of six weeks will be ready to be placed on board ship, when it will be consigned to its new owners in Manila."

"Here everything is being placed in readiness for the reception of the machinery, and before its arrival the various houses for the brewing and ice plants will have been erected. Part of the work on the plant has been placed in the hands of the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Company, and that Company is now engaged in preparing the river front and grounds for the buildings."

A NEW DOCKYARD FOR JAPAN.

The Mitsui Bishi Company has obtained permission from the military authorities to lay out a dockyard on Hikoima, an island in the Shimoda Straits. The principal feature of the yard is to be a dry dock, 370 feet in length, able to accommodate vessels of 4,000 tons register. The growing importance of Moji as a shipping port justifies the enterprise, says a Japanese contemporary.

SKIN TROUBLE KEPT CHILDREN AWAKE

Herself and Four Children a Mass of Sores. Discharge Like Water Before Scabs Formed. Cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

6, Dundonald Rd., Colwyn Bay, N. Wales.—"My eldest boy, eight years old, caught a skin disease from the school. We all had it except baby. In fact I was the worst. It was awful when we went out in the sun. Those who know me will say my face would be marked, it was in such a state. The trouble kept the children awake many nights. The discharge was like water before the scabs formed. It was so itching, so it would blister up and then break and then spread. Myself and four children were a mass of sores. It was terrible."

"I tried all kinds of ointment; each seemed to make it itch and inflame it more. So I sent for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The result was soothed, so I got a box of Cuticura Ointment and Soap. We are free from even a pimple now, thanks to Cuticura Soap and Ointment. They cured us completely." (Signed) Mrs. ELIZA JONES, May 23, 1913.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. A sample of each with 25-n. book free from nearest depot: F. Newbery & Sons, 27, Charterhouse Sq., London; Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, U.S.A. Tender-faced men should shave with Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick. Sample free.

The CHRONICLE covers the last half century in the Far East together with the Text of all the most important Treaties concluded with the countries of Eastern Asia, the various Customs Tariffs, Trade Regulations, Chambers of Commerce, Scales of Commissions, Consular and Court Fees, Hongkong Stamp Duties, Postal Guide, Signal Code, Chinese Festivals, Tables of Money, Weights and Measures, and other Commercial Information.

The CHRONICLE and DIRECTORY, though condensed in every possible manner, contains every year more pages.

It was years ago universally pronounced to be the cheapest work of the kind anywhere published, and although very much enlarged and improved in every way, the price in silver is now below the equivalent of £1 5s, at which it was originally published.

It is published at the Office of the "Hongkong Daily Press," and can be had from, and advertisements sent through the principal Book-sellers in Asia and through
